Postal Pay Is Inadequate

It is an ironical situation that the national Administration, which has professed so much concern for improved wage standards in private industry, remains indifferent to the shockingly inadequate wage standards of Federal postal employees.

The nation's postal workers are still the most poorly paid group in America, despite the paltry increase given them last July by the salary reclassification act which became effective at that time.

That was the first pay increase they received in TWENTY YEARS.

Even so, it added only four hundred dollars a year to the pay of the individual postal worker which was largely nullified by the increased withholding tax and retirement deductions.

In fact, the only actual increase in "take-home" pay for the postal worker after his increase in wages was gained from overtime for Saturday work—and HE IS NOW DEPRIVED OF THAT.

The actual situation with respect to the nation's thousands of postal workers now—and they constitute one of the most indispensable groups in our national life—is that they are compelled to maintain their homes and families on even LESS pay proportionately than before the skimpy gesture made by Congress last year.

There has been some recognition of this situation in Congress, Representative Burch of Virginia and Senator Meade of New York having introduced a bill which, if passed, will provide an additional temporary increase of three hundred dollars annually.

But why is the proposed increase TEMPORARY?

And why is it such a NIGGARDLY sum?

Surely, the postal workers of the nation who perform such a vital service for the country are entitled to ADEQUATE pay on a PERMANENT basis.

Indeed, in view of the higher costs of living which now prevail, an annual increase of five-hundred dollars would be little enough.

It would not put postal workers on a level with even the lowest paid workers in private industry.

But is would enable them to conduct their homes and raise their families a little closer to the American standard of living than has been possible in the last quarter century.

If the American people as a whole have been under the illusion that the increased postal pay voted by Congress last year entirely discharged the national obligation to these vital workers, they should face some facts.

The joint conference of Affiliated Postal Employees provides some of the pertinent facts.

A married mail-handler in the senior grade, with twenty years of service, now has a total take-home pay of $33.64 per week.

A newly appointed married man and war veteran in that same post takes home only $29.10 a week, and if he is single he takes home only $27.27.

Do YOU think that is adequate pay for a type of public service that means so much to every individual citizen and every business institution in America?

Congress should promptly pass an adequate salary readjustment bill in the interest of postal workers, not in the penurious terms of the Burch-Meade bill, but with recognition of the long and continuing INJUSTICE to postal workers of which the Congress and the country are jointly guilty. —L. M'CLANAHAN WILL BE OPPOSED BY 3

LOS ANGELES,—Three candidates have qualified for the race against Meade McClanahan in the 13th District councilmanic recall election, City Clerk Walter C. Peterson announced.

The three who will run it off with McClanahan in the March 19 vote are Daniel Patrick McGinley, an electrician; John R. Roden, Army Air Forces officer, and H. J. Wallis, retired police captain.

O. A. Torgenson, election supervisor, said the sample ballots, bearing the names of the three candidates and the "yes or no" on the recall itself, will be in the mails March 8.

TRUMAN AUTHORIZES U. S. RELIEF FOR GERMANY

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—President Truman has authorized 11 private American relief Agencies, under the collective name "Council of Relief Agency's licensed for Operations in Germany" to accept contributions monthly for Germans in the United States occupied zone. The shipments will consist mainly of condensed milk, sugar, fats, soap, shoes, clothing and medical supplies and will be distributed among the German people by a small group of American civilians serving as a liaison with both the Military Government and the German Central Committee. Individually addressed parcels will not be accepted for delivery.

Inside Story of the "Christian Front" Frame-up

"CHRISTIAN FRONTERS" SENTENCED TO JAIL

NEW YORK,— Homer Maertz was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, while Mertig and Elmhurst received sentences of six months confinement in the workhouse.

* * * *

NEW YORK,—C. Daniel Kurts, the leader of the "Christian Front" in New York, called for a rally on Oct. 8, 1945, by issuing an eight-page pamphlet. Some weeks before the scheduled open air meeting Kurts was approached at his home by a certain Charles G. Smith, posing as Chairman of Queens County for Reynolds American Nationalist Party. Smith sought to arrange an appropriate array of speakers for the meeting, and suggested Col. Eugene N. Sanctuary of New York; Homer Maertz of Chicago, publisher of DISPATCH; Kurt Mertig, Chairman of the Citizen's Protective League in New York; Frederick Kister, National Chairman of the "Christian Veterans," Chicago, and Ernest F. Elmhurst, author of a book on Communism. All volunteered to speak and did address the "Christian Front" audience in Queens Village, except Col. Sanctuary.

The meeting was granted a police permit and opened with an adequate police protection of roughly fifty men in uniform and in plain cloths. The Jewish-Communistic element in their traditional intolerance succeeded in obtaining permission to use the auditorium of a highschool a few blocks away, free of charge, for the purpose of protesting the "Christian Front" rally in front of the Queens Village Railroad Station. Left-wing papers, such as PM and the Daily Worker, informed the world that this protest meeting was held under the auspices of the 'Friends of (Jewish) Democracy' of which 'Rev.' L. M. Birckhead acts as Gentile front figure. None other than the notorious smear-writer of UNDER COVER, Avedus Boghus Derounian, alias John Roy Carlson, presided at the high-school's anti-Christian rally.

After Daniel Kurts' opening address Kurt Mertig spoke for about five minutes, and thereupon left the meeting. The time was about 8:15 p. m. Followed by Frederick Kister, Homer Maertz took the platform around 9 o'clock. Aside from giving a brief description of the San Francisco Conference he read some lines of the booklet on Jewish Ritual Murder by Arnold Leese of London, England, and recommended the audience to procure a copy of same. A few minutes after Homer Maertz left the speaker's stand he ordered Charles G. Smith, who was handing the booklet to some women, to stop distributing it. The time was about 9:20. Mrs. Catherine Brown of the National Blue Mothers of Philadelphia and Ernest F. Elmhurst then followed as speakers. When later, at about 10:15, Mrs. L. Parks, of the Quaker City, stepped upon the platform a commotion started around Homer Maertz whom several Jews wanted arrested for alleged 'disorderly conduct.'

GORILLA-LIKE GINSBERG

A certain Jew, Isadore Ginsberg, who is a lawyer by profession, and Commander of the Jewish War Veterans for advertising purposes and who due to his most unusual appearance was described in that audience as being 'the most gorilla-like looking individual of Greater New York', made several insistent requests to the Police Inspector Correll to effect Maertz's arrest. The Police Inspector, however, scenting Ginsberg's malicious intent, vehemently refused to comply with such a brazen and unmotivated demand as the police saw no cause that would justify their interference. Whereupon the Jewish War Veteran Commander demanded that a policeman arrest Homer Maertz upon his own request.

At the police station Ginsberg, his co-racialists Joseph A. G. Kellman, Isaac Weinstock and a few others as bystanders charged Maertz with 'disorderly conduct'. On Maertz' side there appeared Kurt Mertig, Ernest Elmhurst and Charles G. Smith to witness things that might happen unexpectedly and in return Mertig, who watched Ginsberg's various attempts of inciting the younger element to heckle the speakers from the surrounding park, pressed counter charges against the Jewish War Veteran Chief. Due to police efficiency, however, the disturbing element that had come from the protest meeting in order to break up the "Christian Front" rally, even with Ginsberg's 'moral assistance' failed to interfer seriously with the "Christian Fronters" and no violence occured. Moreover, at the police station the bail for Maertz and Ginsberg was set at $500.00.

SMITH'S SUDDEN "DISCOVERY"

The hearing against both defendants was set for 9 o'clock the next morning, Sunday, October 7th, at the Ridgewood Felony Court. Maertz and Mertig were accompanied by Elmhurst and Smith, and also Daniel Kurts appeared later in the court to witness the procedure. At the court entrance Smith "suddenly" spotted an allegedly old acquaintence of his, Lawyer William H. Barr, and recommended Barr to Homer Maertz as prosepctive counsel for his case. Sunday being a difficult day for getting suitable counsel, Maertz agreed to hire Barr to defend him.

True enough, fifteen minutes before 9 o'clock Ginsberg, Weinstock, Kellman—a lawyer himself like 'handsome' Isadore Ginsberg—with two more lawyers of his race, approached the court building and soon were seen chatting with Lawyer Barr who stood some 300 feet west of the court behind his parked car. The court clerk hinted that the presiding judge would not appear before 10 o'clock in the morning. Maertz and his friends as well as Ginsberg and his associates had a full hour to wait. Counsel Barr apparently found it practical to 'talk things over' with Ginsberg's gang rather than with his future client, Homer Maertz. Charles Smith, however, assured Maertz that Barr's presence was just a coincidence, though it is well to note here that on or about September 30—that is one week before the day of the meeting—Smith 'recommended' Barr to Kurtz . . . just in case . . . !

While Elmhurst sat in the rear of the court room, reading a morning paper, a court attendant suddenly demanded to know his address which he gave without suspecting the ulterior motive for such an inquiry. From 10:30 to 11 o'clock the court room resembled a veritable bee hive, for the now arrived Judge Joseph De Andrea received in his chambers back of the Bench a constant stream of non-Aryan looking visitors. His telephone rang continuously. The goatee-bearded reporter of Gelvex News Service found it worthwhile to pay Magistrate De Andrea at least two five-minute visits in preparation of what then was to transpire within the next hour.

When Magistrate De Andrea appeared the "bums's rush" began by quickly calling Homer Maertz a 'dangerous character' who had been "imported" here for the purpose of distributing anti-Jewish literature, and his bail was raised from $500.00 to $1000.00 while, as a matter of fact, Ginsberg's bail was immediately cancelled without much ado. The court stenographer even failed to take note of it.

JUDGE "FIXED" HIM A LAWYER

A few minutes later De Andrea shouted for Ernest Elmhurst and, without reading the required complaint, said that there was a charge for 'inciting to riot' against Maertz, Mertig and Elmhurst and all were advised to consult 'their' lawyer. "I have no lawyer" was Elmhurst's reply, " I don't know what the whole matter is about." "Go, and see your lawyer" De Andrea shouted back with a Mephistopheles-like superiority complex.

At that instant Barr grabbed Elmhurst by the arm: "Do you want me to represent you or not? There is an unlawful assembly charge against you three here. Do you want me to speak for you or not. Answer quickly! Yes or no. You will learn about the charge and the details later."

"In New York City goes the story that courts are Jewish territory."

And so it was. In the course of the next five minutes Judge De Andrea raised Maertz' bail from $1,000.00 to $6,000.00 and that for Mertig and Elmhurst at $2,000.00 each, and simultaneously the dungeon doors were opened for these three 'rioteers' prior to their confinement at the Queens County Court Jail. Judge De Andrea had carried out his Jewish master's voice to Israel's satisfaction. Barr's noteworthy mission then would be to get the rake-off, $2,000.00.

The following day Barr informed his three railroaded clients in jail that he had been successful in getting from another judge a reduction in bail, and also that all three were charged with New York State Penal Code 2092, sub. 3, which says that "it makes an assembly of three or more unlawful if they did attempt or threaten an act tending toward a breach of the peace or an injury to a person or persons and property; and that the said defendants did, in such an unlawful assembly, participate thereby by their presence, aid or instigation as follows: that each and all of said defendants did then and there distribute, cause to be distributed and sold, inflamatory literature concerning alleged ritual murder practices of the Jewish people as a tenet of their religious faith, thereby exposing them to scorn, ridicule and contempt and tending to incite to riot etc. etc."

Lawyer Barr's rake-off then would be a trifling $2,000.00, to be paid in weekly instalments, starting with $500.00 the next day.

Hardly was a calendar week over when a known Jew-stooge, Lawyer Kenneth Elliot, former prosecutor of Joe McWilliams, released in thousands of mimeographed copies a fabrication of lying stories with regard to Maertz', Mertig's and Elmhurst's alleged "Fascistic" past activities and their suspected ties with some subversive "Nazi" groups in Central and South

GERMAN AMERICAN VOTERS LEAGUE

The Citizen's Protective League of New York is holding its regular SUNDAY meetings at 3 p. m. at Forester's Rendezvous, 146 E. 84 Street, near Lexington avenue, New York City.

America, all of which should bring Greater N. Y. into a state of racial emergency. While such a 12-page smear sheet was addressed to Prosecutor D. A. Charles P. Sullivan, it also was expected to reach individuals and citizens who happen to be not on the Anti-Nazi League and Anti-Defamation League mailing lists.

January 10, 1946, the case THE PEOPLE vs. Homer Maertz, Kurt Mertig and Ernest F. Elmhurst came up in Special Sessions Court in Long Island City. Its three judges, George B. DeLuca, Henry H. Curran and Frederick Hackenburg, not being less pro-Jewish than the formerly acting Magistrate Judge De Andrea, were apparently very much gratified by lawyer Barr's "shadow boxing" without ever attempting to get at the bare facts which in this, as in any other trial, are basic to obtain justice. Thus Barr refused the request of his clients to produce witnesses. He intimidated them against being put on the stand, and accordingly, thwarted the task of properly cross-examining the "PEOPLES" witnesses. Barr speculated of getting an acquittal on "Constitutional grounds" by just quoting a handful of law opinion.

On the PEOPLE'S side there were five witnesses subpoened while the sixth was standing by. The first witness on the stand, C. Daniel Kurts, saw and knew nothing of any literature being offered or sold.

The second witness, Joseph Kellman, being cross-examined by the Jewish Prosecutor J. Irving Shapiro thus: "How about the defendant, Elmhurst, or Mertig, did you personally see them take any literature out of these bags?"

"I think I saw Elmhurst take some."

Shapiro: "Did you or didn't you?"

"I DID NOT. NOT ACCORDING TO THE BEST OF MY RECCOLECTION POSITIVELY." (Emphasis supplied)

Cross-examining by Lawyer Barr: "Are you prepared to say that Elmhurst was given any (literature) either (exhibit) Three Four or Five for distribution?"

Kellman: "No, Sir."

"Are you prepared to say that Mertig, defendant number one, was given either Exhibits, Three, Four or Five for distribution?"

"No. Sir."

KELLMAN PERJURED HIMSELF

While the last two questions highlighted Barr's mastery of defense, the above cross-examination of Kellman shows this Jewish lawyer (and friend of Ginsberg) openly committing perjury in comparison with the complaint which he signed, and in which Kellman asserted that all three, (Maertz, Mertig and Elmhurst) did then and there distribute, cause to be distributed and sold, inflamatory etc. literature. . . .

The third PEOPLE'S witness, Lt. Col. William Berman, a Jew, had not seen any of these defendants distribute literature objected to.

Witnesses Four, Isaac Weinstock, however claims that Mertig (who was absent from 8:15 to 10:30 o'clock had sold Jewish Ritual Murder around 9:30) and also that Elmhurst has allegedly sold same.

The fifth witness, the Police Stenographer, Henry Siegrist, from his position 15 to 20 feet from the speaker's stand, in cross-examination by Shapiro stated the following: Question: "Do you know which individuals were taking the literatures from these bags?"

"There were two women and a man at that platform."

Question: "Yes?"

"And they were distributing literature."

"Who took them out of the receptacles, out of the two bags, do you know?"

"I think it's the gentleman down right behind Captain Newman."

"Not one of these defendants?"

"No."

Justice DeLuca: "Identify him, which man did you say?"

Justice DeLuca: "Is that the man?"

"Yes, Sir."

Justice DeLuca: "What is his name?"

Court Attendant: "Charles G. Smith, 40-18 Hampton Street."

That in view of the above testimony the three defendants by unanimous vote could be found guilty for "unlawful assembly" is being explained by the fact that the pressure Jewry reportedly had brought upon these three judges was "terrific."

Typical of the strikingly hostile and prejudicial attitude of all three judges was during the February 14th hearing Judge Hackenburg's outburst: "It isn't a crime that recommends itself to lenient treatment, in my opinion. I will also vote that the defendants be remanded during the time of the adjournment."

Despite a very poor lawyer-representation by these defendants the evidence produced stands undisputed in favor of the accused and in legal circles, such as the New York Bar Association, there is much speculation whether Israel's super-pressure in the present case will be complied with by the three judges of the Queens County Special Sessions Court or whether American justice still has any meaning in the courts of New York, when sentence is pronounced.

Lawyer Henry H. Klein, noted writer on present day racial and political issues, will appear in court for Kurt Mertig and Ernest Elmhurst. He is expected to reveal the entire plot hatched out by a number of subversive Jewish gangs.

Lincoln Speech a Triumph of Journalism .... Rich Jewish Swing Against the Reds

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, March 3 (Special),—Publication by the Broom of a portion of Lincoln's great speech at Columbus, Ohio, (Sept. 16, 1859) was a noteworthy piece of journalism. I doubt if any other newspaper has printed those words in 85 YEARS! Let's shower praise upon Editor de Aryan.

Legends of lies have been built up about the Great Emancipator. Mrs. Luce's falsehoods did some good, in that she caused my answer and Lincoln's words to be published.

Lincoln's correct ideas on the Negro will now be re-printed over the nation, and do much to "scotch" the red snake of New Deal Communism.

It is pointed out in the fine book by Prof. Meyers of Princeton University, "The History of the Republican Party," that Lincoln did not wish to confer suffrage upon the black freedmen, and that the abler men of the G. O. P. regretted the hasty action of the party, caused by anger and hatred, born of the war and the Assassination.

Lincoln did not believe in giving the Negro SOCIAL AND POLITICAL EQUALITY of the kind advocated by the Reds and their Socialist fellow-travellers, like the scatterbrained Clare Luce and the ego-centric Wayne Morse.

The radical socialist Senator Morse went up to New York and sat on the stage with Red Negroes, like A. Phillip Randolph, at the FEPC rally on the 28th ult., and made a speech, along with his fellow Newdeal radical Senator Chavez, according to the N. Y. "Times," they "united in declaring the voters should STRIKE DOWN AT ELECTION TIME THOSE WHO OPPOSED THE FEPC BILL, regardless of whether they were Democrats or Republicans."

Perhaps there are enough white Christian people in their States to see that they are retired permanently to private life when they again run in 1950. Men who vote for a foolish, tyrannical law, compelling employers to discriminate AGAINST white Christians, should be recalled at the first opportunity.

Morse is one of the most intolerant and narrow-minded bigots ever to hold a seat in the United States Senate. He is becoming as popular with his collegues as a rattlesnake.

TRUMAN IS REALLY LITTLE

No other President, hardly even excepting FDR, ever tried so hard to browbeat his superior—the Congress, representing the people, as the current President, Mr. Truman.

It is generally conceded that much of the goodwill he at first found in the Congress, has withered away. As one of our greatest national weeklies wrote recently, "The little man from Missouri is really little."

Notwithstanding the fact that he must know that (in their secret hearts) three-fourths of the Congress oppose the vicious "FEPC", Mr. Truman sends Secretary Schwellenbach up to the N. Y. FEPC mob-rally to assure the black and tan mob that he intends to push the bill down the throats of the Congress. (Among those sponsoring the rally, aside from Red Negro outfits, were the National Conference of Christians and Jews and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith).

"POLITICS"

Dedicated to honest men who fight for the common herd.

By JAMES BRYAN

A battleground where go the living,
In paying tribute to the dead,
Where there's both hatred and forgiving,
They're everything when all is said.

A meeting ground where saint and sinner,
Have found and shared the common touch,
Where all men count, and the beginner,
Also counts, but not too much.

Where liars and thieves have things in common,
Exchanging blows with honest men,
Who often lose by such encounter,
But rise to fight, and fight again.

Where common men have proven virtue,
But even angels fear to tread,
Where friend or foe may help or hurt you,
For truths and lies are often said.

A melting pot where brass and pewter,
Mix and mingle with the gold,
Where patriot has met the looter,
Where governments are bought and sold.

Where human vice, meets human virtue,
And often virtue is a sin,
For which the powers that be will hurt you,
They're everything, and to all men.

RED ISIGNIA UNPOPULAR

"Red neckties and Red star insignia, popular the first days after the arrival of the Russians, now have disappeared," the Czechs declared. "People are so afraid of uninvited Russian officers, who enter their homes, ask for dinner, drinks, and women, that they even block up their front doors to give the impression their houses are uninhabited."

"It is estimated that the Russians exported to Russia in the first three months of their stay in Czechoslovakia goods and material worth 15 times the pre-war annual budget of the country. In Slovakia where the bulk of Russian troops are concentrated, Marshal Malinovsky's men have caused the death of several hundred women and girls by violation and terrorizing the population."

Protect Child Life!

Caution your child about the changing traffic situation. There are more cars, travelling faster than during wartime. Many children were too young to remember traffic as it was before the war, or they have forgotten how to protect themselves. Knowledge now may avert tragedy later.

Teach children to cross at intersections in city traffic. Be sure your child understands to walk with the green light. Caution children against crossing in middle of block or darting out from between parked cars. Be sure they know to look for turning traffic before crossing!

Walk facing traffic is a cardinal rule for highway hiking. Teach children to walk facing traffic, preferably on the shoulder of the road allowing enough room for oncoming cars to pass at a safe distance. For night walking, wear something white or carry a flashlight.

"Playing in the street" is a leading cause of child traffic fatalities. Teach children to play in well-protected play areas. Even "blind" streets are dangerous because children may not be alert to cars which come into these streets. Children should learn very young to stay out of streets.

"It shall be as the Lord commandeth," quoth Yousef, of Bethlehem, in answer to the lengthy instruction given by the veiled prophet, Eliye of Gethsemane, by the Covenanters usually addressed as "Abba."

"Peace be unto thee, my son," said Abba, and then with his hands uplifted he pronounced a blessing in a low voice, saying:

"Yousef, thy name shall be revered thruout the ages to come, and blessed shall be the minds whose eyes shall be fixed on thee. Thou art anointed by the Most High to take the Savior unto thy kin and redeem the charge in thy care from the tyranny of the adversaries now claiming the Sancutary of the Most High. As I am rapidly advancing in years I have nothing to hope for but to transfer my rights to Yousef of Arimathea as next in kin to the heirship of the Sacred Office* until it shall please the Most High to direct otherwise.

"Our only hope in the salvation of Israel lies in the concentration of all our thot upon One thru whom the divinest of our souls' desires may become crystallized and stands out before the world as an example of virtuous purity and unshaken faith."

"Praise be to the Most High," whispered Yousef, with his head bent low, "still I myself am not a fit instrument to such holy callings; I am advancing in years, and I am the father of nine children of whom the youngest is absent, while his mother has long departed to Abraham's bosom."

"Yousef, peace be to thy mind. The Most High will reveal it all in His own due time. Of all things is the most important, that thou takest unto thyself Miryam. According to custom and law it would be difficult to find her a suitor willing to deny his ancestry.* Besides, there is no throne in the family of Coventanters so well situated as thou art to satisfy even the most technical part of the laws of authority.§ True, thy wealth, the templars so cunningly figured upon, will slip from them and the wealth of Miryam will also pass into the hands of her offspring. It may cause some bitter feelings at the Temple of the Far-off Country, but by frequently paying heavy tithes and fat offerings unto the 'brood' thou wilt offset their suspicion and keep them at bay. Absolute silence in matters sacred and of secrecy before one another, when outside the communion table§§ will impart the blessings of Peace unto the project revealed by the Most High and obviate all possible persecutions. May the Most High continue to illumine thy heart and keep thee in His charge thru a host of angels surpassing the numerals of the counting board, while the souls of ancestry shall protect thee in all thy dealings and our Holy Fathers watch over thee day by day, that thy countenance may continue to radiate the splendor of a glowing autumn sun kissing the fruit of the season into the blush of maturity to the delight of the husbandman. Prayers of the faithful shall ascend up to the throne of the Most High to refrain thee from doubt and the veil of darkness, that by fidelity thy trust may enjoy the hand of protection. Continue to confide in the Most High and thy Lord that the longed-for may become realized unto the comfort of all the faithful. Amen."

"Amen," breathed Yousef, and led by Abba, retired to his apartments after bowing before the women in the courtyard, who in turn veiled their eyes with their right hand in humble submission and respect before so reverential a nobility as that of Abba, whose majestic bearing and philosophic countenance commanded awe and inspiration.

*SACRED OFFICE—Refers to the position of High Priest, which had its heirship, but thru political intrigue had become an office of appointment to the highest bidder, disowning the original holders. Priest Eliye was the uncrowned High Priest to the few of royal descent who congregated as Covenanters by ties of relation, but remained faithful to the purim of the Pharisees, altho liberal to Essenees, Samaritans, Greeks and Sadducees to the disgust of the priesthood, to whom everything was a beam in their eyes that did not yield to the iron rod of Pharisaic authority. As Eliye had no offspring, Yousef of Arimathea, then a young man and a prospective member to the Sanhedrin by divine right, stood a chance for the High Priesthood, if the selection would be conducted in accordance with the constitution. Eliye turned over his right and all the sacred garments, with the seal of authority, the ram and the serpent's head, to Yousef of Arimathea.

SALVATION OF ISRAEL—Owing to the chaotic state in religious and political matters for generations, the pure in heart, and those tinged by the religious fervor and zeal, inherited from the Babylonians and Persians the thot of a Savior to end all strife, and this was being nursed in the minds of the hopeful. The better class and those of royal blood, altho disowned thru intrigue and conspiracy, held their family covenant and practiced the power of thot thru motherhood in the expectation of preparing their bodies unto holiness equal to the manifestations of the better fruit of the spirit and thus weed out in time the obnoxious element by the growing up of a greater number of pure characters.

ABSENT.—Mentally deficient, altho endowed with the quality of psychic powers; still unable to reason pro or con.

*DENY HIS ANCESTRY.— As Miryam was the only child, and a girl at that, the only way unto salvation to her ancestry now lay in her marriage to one who would deny his ancestry and become a son by adoption to her lineage. Lineage was too sacred to the Oriental to break it at any price, and for this reason no man would marry Miryam save a widower who already had an offspring and thus an assurance unto perpetuity of his genealogy and a life everlasting. Yousef was a widower and thus could afford to become adopted as a "son of Heli," according to Luke iii:23, to perpetuate Miryam's lineage; while according to Mathew i:16, he remained the "begotten" one of Yacub, thus showing the difference in the genealogical chronology, the one in Luke being that of Miryam and the one in Matthew that of Yousef.

§LAWS OF AUTHORITY.—Stands for the high tribunal of the Church, imposing heavy fines for every transgression considered such by the Church, oftentimes pronouncing the death penalty. For this reason man, however illiterate or ignorant, was forced to become cunning and resort to falsehoods that knew no bounds in their magnitude. Yousef was of royal descent, and by divine right held the position as contractor over the woodwork in the Temple; entitled to a revenue which made him a rich man in addition to the numerous flocks he possessed in the hills of Bethlehem, near Nazareth; a wealth that would have passed into the hands of the priest-caste were he not to marry again, as his male children had turned apostates, confessing their faith with the Greeks.

§§COMMUNION TABLE.—All the aristocrats of descendants of the royal priesthood kept their relationship sacred and gathered periodically in reunion to inform one another of their success and impart to each other such instructions that were considered so sacred that absolute silence and secrecy had to be vowed. Topics considered at the communion table were never to be spoken of or hinted at in private or in public. A breach of confidence called for expulsion from the Covenant, with the loss of property and offspring, which remained under jurisdiction of the association.

Animal Atom Test Flayed

CANADIAN GROUP ASSAILS USE OF DOGS, GOATS IN A-BOMB TEST

VICTORIA, B. C.,—Plans to use goats and dogs in the forthcoming atomic bomb tests were under attack by the Victoria Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The society wired President Truman:

"Proposed tests are cruel, barbarous and a serious reflection on your national character."

L. A. PROTESTS SENT TO PRESIDENT

LOS ANGELES,—Animal lovers unleashed a flood of protests against use of animals in the forthcoming atomic bomb tests in the South Pacific.

Among the organizations spearheading the protest was the California Animal Defense and Anti-Vivisection League, Inc., whose president, Rosemonde Rae Wright, wired President Truman as follows:

"The California Animal Defense and Anti-Vivisection League of Los Angeles, representing a large and distinguished citizenry, vigorously protests the use of animals in the atomic bomb test. Why not use inanimate objects instead of the bodies of sentient animals? The American nation cannot afford to be a party to so gross a violation of justice and compassion."

The wire also was sent to the Secretaries of War and Navy.

"Proposed use of live animals in bomb test is a disgrace to the nation." Althea Musser, executive secretary of the Humane Education League, wired the President.

CHARGE CRUELTY

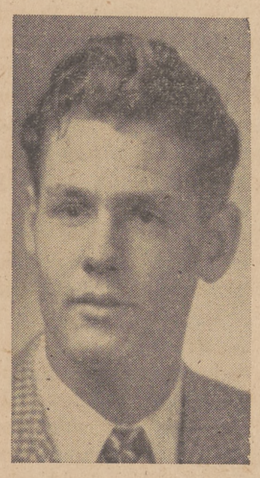
Referring to the proposed use of animals in the historic tests H. W. McLean, president of the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, wrote the President and War and Navy Secretaries:

"We protest this cruel and barbarous proposal and suggest that this information is available in abundance from previous tests such as the destruction of Nagasaki and other Japanese attack results, which should furnish ample information under any and all conditions on live subjects."

The First Law of Nature

Dear Dad:

I have been reading with interest your debate with Fred. It seems to me in the issue of February 4, that you agree with Fred in the last paragraph. Of course your inference may be that since we are not living in a world of saints we cannot expect to influence others by using saintly methods of action in every phase of human affairs. Yet even if this inference is implied in the last paragraph, you contradict such an inference by the concluding sentence: "Only as the American sets the example of the Golden Rule in practice will America be safe."



DAVID L. de ARYAN

Even with the apparent contradictions in your answer to Fred, you concede the "Christian" the right to defend himself by force in case of an unwarranted attack. However, the rules concerning the ideal do not include force or violence. Therefore, if we wish to bring the ideal about, we must apply the rules. Why is it that you say that we should kill if necessary to repel the invader? The apparent reason is that he will kill you and so destroy all the good works you have been doing or would do in the future if you had lived.

However, with this sort of reasoning you have left out the power that is concomittant when one follows the law to the letter. Often you have said to Fred and me: "follow the principle and give no thought for the consequences."

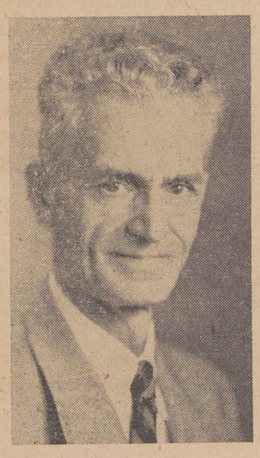
Here is merely another way in which we may adhere to principle and give no thought for the results. To me this business of excusing an action which is admittedly contrary to principle merely because the person who is the recipient of that action is unable to appreciate the meaning of principle is directly analogous to Henry Sorge's recount of Dr. Hanish's reasons for using dairy products. In short, Baloney.

Perhaps I have not correctly assumed your reason for using force in case of the unwarranted attack, but I can think of no other at present. Love, DAVID

QUOD LICET JOVI NON LICET BOVI

Dear David:

Both you and Fred are haywire because you are not considering the circumstances that brought forth the language used. Taking phrases out of context and then arguing about their alleged meaning is foolish. I called Fred right from the start on it.



C. Leon de Aryan

A reader, named HANS in the letter he wrote to THE BROOM, took issue with my denunciation of the Hitler measures against Jewry in Germany and referring to the prophetic vision of George Washington, where alien hordes invade American soil, bluntly asked: "Will it be self-defense or will it be crime?" to defend our soil with force against the invaders.

I replied that naturally it would be self-defense.

Fred took me to task and so do you.

The basis of your reprimands is that IF principle were followed regardless of consequences, adjustments would take place which would take the ground out from under the feet of any enemy, as it actually does where the Christ-Principle is strictly followed in practice. You even quote my own instructions to you boys. You make reference to the "baloney" of Dr. Hanish' concessions to the yet undeveloped minds that attempt to be vegetarians but could not make the grade because they were spiritually unqualified and he, then, personally came down to their level to keep contact with them. Result: in practice Mazdaznan has yet to be demonstrated in America, and that is your job.

But neither of you boys have considered all the facts in the case.

You received early instructions in the divinity of your origin, the eternity of Life; Karma; reincarnation and the supreamcy of principle over expediency. You are a thousand years ahead of the masses. You have been trained to think and to live right. Not committing any violence, you are not subject to its consequences, hence you will never have to defend yourself by force because, being the originator of all that ever occurs to you you have not set violence into motion to confront you personally in life.

But you are not HANS. He was not brought up to realize the deeper truths of life, already with mother's milk as it were. You two boys had an extra-ordinary upbringing. He is yet groping, searching for the truth and its realities in application. He is not a vegetarian but a parasite upon the cow, the hen, the swine, the sheep. He slaughters to live. To his concept one has to kill to live. Hence the Jews prevail who consider him a GOY, which means, cattle fit for slaughter and he and his boys are subject to conscription into that state of affairs: they create violence and must defend themselves.

In evolution the human mind unfolds from the animalistic state slowly into the divine state. The world at large is yet animalistic, hence they imagine that they must eat animals for strength, they must drink cow or goat milk or eat hen-fruit. They are not divinely human yet, so only in appearance but not in Spirit. To be human is to be divine, to be conscious of God as our Father and origin and we of the same substance as He.

Hence, in the case of HANS and of the world, the first law of nature prevails. To tell them not to defend themselves by force is an entirely different matter than teaching you the same.

You have learned to put into OPERATION spiritual powers infinitely more potent than physical force. By abstaining from violence in procuring your subsistence you are not entangled with violence. Hence in the illusory world you will find the islands of safety that are provided for the Saints in the midst of hell, war, and what have you, in a criminal world. The traffic will take its toll of HANS and his kind, but you are safe and it passes you by. To describe to HANS the location of the "Safety Islands" brings no practical results because it takes a life time of devotion and practice to even awaken the FIRST sense that perceives the finer spiritual potencies. You two boys were raised in it, you breathe its air, to you it is self-evident, to HANS and the world at large it is something beyond their ken.

Therefore, when danger approaches the cow, the cattle and the whole animalistic world they follow instinct; they bunch together, fighting in self-defense. It is not a crime for them, it is their natural way.

And that is the world we are living in.

Love, KOSTI.

The Covenant is a Mutual Obligation

I went to Los Angeles last Sunday, March 3, to bring Fred's belongings home since he is being drafted and stopped his studies at the university. Starting out early morning I arrived in time for the Temple service of the Mazdaznan group at which Henry Sorge, the nominal leader, officiated. It was the 10th anniversary of Dr. O. Z. Hanish' death who had passed on February 29.

Henry reminisced his association with the little master, as Dr. Hanish used to call himself in distinction from MAZDA, our Lord and Master. Recalling the ordeals of persecution which Dr. Hanish underwent, Henry pointed to the fact that it is equally the duty of every God-conscious individual to represent Principle in daily conduct and, if needs be, defy the authorities as Jesus had and Dr. Hanish had, regardless of personal consequences. This duty is individual not a group duty. The individual decides for himself how far he dares stand up for Principle against the pressure of authorities. The group does not dictate to the individual, nor does the group bear any responsibility for the consequences.

On the other hand Sorge expressed his astonishment at being informed that within the group criticism had been voiced at the conduct of group affairs. He warned that such criticism works against the critics and hampers the work. As an individual, Sorge said, he improves himself when he becomes conscious of his shortcomings, but as a group the members must collaborate in mutual support and not indulge in destructive critism.

THE TRUTH vs. GROUP LEADERSHIP

This raises the issue whether the truth reigns supreme in affairs of the group or whether the voicing of the truth must be suppressed where the "authorities" leading the group are challenged in the conduct of their office. A covenant which does not offer group assistance to the individual who dares defy the authorities, neither obliges the individual to cover up for the group. In the case of Jesus, who, as Henry announced, belonged to the same Temple community as Dr. Hanish, the covenanters stood by and supported Jesus at every turn of the road. They even decided to take "desperate" measures to save his body from the cross had not the Imperial Edict arrived in the nick of time cancelling the warrant of death.

It is the nature of human frailty to dub the truth "criticism" when it is unpleasant to one's personal sensibilities and charge the bearers of the message with "disloyalty" to the group. This is exactly what the lynch law "courts" are doing at present all over the world, taking revenge on those who dared oppose the Sanhedrin.

Whenever the leadership of a religious group cannot stand the light of clear reasoning and mutual application of obligations, they already have lapsed into the status of a sacred cow authority.

Amery, Terminiello, Smith, Kister

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Thanks for all past favors. Have you noticed a change for the better lately? OUR victory over the terrible F. E. P. C. bill is surely the turning point in history for our great country. OUR gallant Senators did a GOOD job of flailing that foolish bill flat. It is NOT apt to be put forward very soon again by it's communistic sponsors. OUR men spoke right out, and said things they never would have said about the colored races . . . . if they had not been driven to the wall.

I am enclosing a story about the murder of a Christian Englishman, John Amery, who made a futile attempt to save England from the control and domination of OUR powerful enemies. Please read this story, and comment on it over or under this letter. His tragic end is the same which OUR enemies are determined to bring upon Christian Ezra Pound, the Poet.

You might call attention to the fact that ONLY Christians are held to be war criminals in any country, and that no mention is ever made in the daily press of a communistic war criminal. John Amery died a martyr . . . . a martyr to Gentile ignorance and stupidity. Just consider the three Christians arrested by OUR enemies in New York a few weeks ago, and held and convicted by ENEMY judges in a most outrageous demonstration of the violation of the BILL OF RIGHTS.

Then reflect on the fact that OUR enemies interferred with a meeting of Christian Frontiers in Chicago a few days ago, and tried hard to put a Catholic priest behind jail bars along with two other crusading Christians! OUR enemies are certainly exposing themselves for what they are, and will soon get a good new-fashioned going over. Any fool knows what THAT means.

Your faithful fighting Nordic,

IRA CALVIN WHITE
Brookline 46, Massachusetts
P. O. Lock Drawer H

WHY ABUSE CHRIST AND "CHRISTIAN" ?

Referring to John Amery as a Christian Engishman, as well as to the Catholic priest Terminiello, who with Smith and Kister are being persecuted in the Chicago frame-up as Christians.

A Christian follows the Christ. The Christ precept is that God rules supreme, therefore all His children do is OBEY HIM and they NEVER need use violence. Jesus mounted Golgatha and gave his life to demonstrate that. TRUST in God as the Supreme Ruler, that is the Christian's ONLY and best protection. Only those who lack this Christian faith resort to violence, hence are not Christians.

John Amery favored Hitler above England in this war under the mistaken idea that the Jews ruled England while Hitler had liberated Germany from the Jewish yoke. Fact of the matter is: Hitler played the Jewish game from the start to his last breath. They financed him to start World War II, gave him 7 billions and egged him on to persecute them that "humanity's conscience be outraged" so that America, then, would be dragged in. Hitler obliged. He drove Germany to its destruction exactly as the Jews had planned. And Amery was on Hitler's side. How that makes him a Christian is a mystery only Ira Calvin White is able to fathom. Being against Jews is not what makes a man a Christian.

I have written twice about Terminiello. If he is a Christian then the Devil is a saint, because Terminiello deplored the fact that FDR and Knox have been called before the Judgment Throne of the Almighty so Terminiello cannot hang them, after due trial and conviction, as Pearl Harbor war criminals.

As to Gerald Smith, I have previously pointed out that in the same breath with lipservice to the Christ he incited in my presence, in the Philarmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles, to hatred and killing of Japs and elaborated what a great hero his son was, fighting Japs.

Concerning Kister and his Christian War Veterans:

Kister is no Christian War Veteran. The Christian War Veterans are those who took no orders from anybody but the Christ. You'll find them in the federal penitentiaries and the C. O. slave labor camps. Hitler burned them and quartered them. Stalin murders them, sends them to Siberia and works them to death.

There are Jewish War Veterans, I admit. They are the veterans from the Jewish War I and II. Then there are the American Legion, see Mark 5:9; Luke 9:30. Also there are the Veterans of Foreign Wars, since all wars are not only foreign but alien to Christianity and human welfare. Those who call themselves Kister's Christian War Veterans are actually Veteran Shabes-Goyim.

The idea that opposition to Jewish rule christens one a Christ follower is a very poor notion. A Christian gives his life, never takes the life of his brother man.

It is the intention of the Sanhedrin, who controls the White House and the London administrations, to "convict" all patriots and nationalists in "people's courts" by lynch law since the Sanhedrin intends to expand international rule. But that is a political affair and to divide the "crusaders", against the Sanhedrin and for, into groups along religious lines is absurd and dishonest. Just opposing the Sanhedrin does not make one a Christian. In the War of Independence some of the greatest scoundrels among the colonists lined up against the King, as well as the best patriots. Being against one bunch a scoundrels does not make one a saint. Thieves fall out among themselves, too.

Just as not all Jews are either dupes or collaborators with the Sanhedrin, so millions of "Christians" are fullfledged partners of the Sanhedrin.

It is true that ALL Christians are against the Sanhedrin and its operations, as Jesus was and gave his life on the Cross to demonstrate that no man needs obey criminal authorities. But mere rabble rousing against the Sanhedrin does not make the "crusaders" Christians, as it is a fact that none of the participants in the "crusaders" in the middle ages against the Mohammedans were Christians. No Christian ever goes to war against his brother man. THAT IS the badge of living Christian faith in God as the actual dispensor and protector of Justice.

The Red Cross Racket

We never give a penny to the Red Cross. In the first place, it is an auxiliary of the war makers, to take from the suckers in charity what they failed to extort in taxes. In the second place, the Red Cross is the handmaiden of the medical vivisectionists and poison-serum-drug-trusts. The Red Cross does not administer its relief work impartially to the needy.

In too many instances of flood relief, earthquakes and other disasters, those who refused to be vaccinated with small pox, diphteria, cholera and other shots were denied shelter, clothing, blankets, food and other necessities. The Quakers have always helped where the need arose, even in national, regional or international disasters, WITHOUT asking questions or imposing any dictatorship upon the victims. Make your donations to the Friends. They help all, regardless of color line or creed.

The Wonder Pencils

Again, again, and again, the selfstyled "Friends of Democracy" (Russian Fashion) are printing in their underground newspapers more smear against me and my store. Again and again they repeat the selling of the "Broom" and of the so-much-hated "Pencils" which an intelligent businessman created. The pencils are a heavy weight in their stomachs. They cannot digest them.

It seems that the "Battlefronters" have no sense of humor and are really not very smart. I and the world had already forgotten about the pencils.

As their hidden newspaper finds its way also to the eyes of awakening true Americans, just as the BROOM is doing, so many Americans are interested in these pencils. I happen to get a lot of orders for such. Even for other goods I sell, the amount of customers is increasing. I am not able to spare the time to answer all the letters and therefore I like to publish in general my answer to the inquirers. Just so, as I did when Mr. Joe Valentine from Decatur was writing to me on a postal card, received on "Valentine's Day": Please send me 10 pencils "Jew-money; Jew-deal; New-Deal; War", with invoice and let me know, etc., etc.

To Mr. Valentine I have sent an answer as following, only inside of an "Valentine-card".

I hope the answer is satisfying to all and also that the Battlefronters will quiet down.

Sincerely yours, EUGENE BRAND.

THE WONDER PENCILS

When Mr. Finehurst of Indianopolis made pencils
Marked "Jew-Money - Jew-Deal - New-Deal - War"
He went for the taste of New Dealers
A little bit too far.

They gave him some good advice
As dictatorial Democrats—
From that particular moment
The pencils were "killed" by rats.

I received a few as a special gift
And used them just in fun;
Pretty soon they received a lift—
Then to "Battlefronters" gone?!

From thereon started—Oh, what a smear
At secret Propaganda's "Front"—
So for every Yankee it must be clear
"What the Pinkers" Do Not Want.

If time on time is looming
And we will have a UNO real global red
And pencil business will be blooming
I will have to offer (you) "Stalin" pencils. may I bet.

N. Y. Jews Active in Persecution Of Christians

Jail The Bill of Rights—And Jewish Mobs Try to Ruin May Quinn, Teacher, After Board Vindicates Her

NEW YORK, March 4,—"Are the Jews out to remove from the teaching profession every Gentile who ever said a word against any Jew—and after ALL Gentiles are thus removed as teachers, will there be enough Jews to fill up the vacant ranks?"—is a question which a prominent Christian asked last week, as he boiled with indignation at the mob violence by Jewish groups against one little American Christian teacher, Miss May Quinn, of Brooklyn.

It was Miss Quinn's misfortune, after 25 years' of flawless teaching in the public schools of this city, to be assigned to a school where most of the spoiled brats were Jewish and nearly all of her teaching associates were Red Russians of similar racial pedigree.

Naturally the Christian teacher could not see eye to eye with the Red Jews, so some fourteen or fifteen filed baseless charges against her, in writing, to the school principal. The principal noted that Miss Quinn had a wonderful record and not one black mark against her through all the long years.

Miss Quinn, properly indignant at the baseless charges, made the mistake of suing her Russian accusers for libel, forgetting that the local courts are absolutely dominated by left-wing Jews.

Some New York papers lied in stating that the jury rejected Miss Quinn's claim. It never reached the jury; the judge decided that the charge by the Jewish teachers was a privileged communication and threw the case out. An appeal is pending.

The vindictive Anti-Christian Reds then cooked up charges against Miss Quinn, in the endeavor to prevent her finishing three more years of teaching when she would (or will) become eligible for a pension. The board reluctantly took the charges under investigation; Jewish pressure forced the superintendent to suspend her pending trial.

A thorough investigation was made, a trial was held and the Board of Education, by a vote of 5 to 1, acquitted Miss Quinn of all charges, except a very minor one, fined her two month's pay and restored her to her job. The superintendent assigned her to an American section of Brooklyn in a school where she is now teaching English instead of civics.

And what happened? The bloodthirsty, sadistic, unforgiving female "mockies" threw a picket line around Miss Quinn's new school, and they are moving heaven and earth to destroy her. They have enlisted the Jewish heads of some fifteen associations, Parent-Teachers, B'Nai B'Rith (ADL), etc.

All New York papers have played it up, and the reaction of Gentile Christians has been quick and sharp in curses against the Jewish persecution of an able, popular and patriotic Christian American of the fourth generation. Nothing in years has created so much "Anti-Semitism" in a city where Jewish aggressiveness has earned almost universal dislike on the part of Gentiles.

3 CHRISTIANS JAILED

Attorney Henry H. Klein put a magnificent fight in the Long Island City court on the 28th in behalf of Kurt Mertig and Ernest F. Elmhurst, but they and Homer Maertz were sentenced to jail by three Special Sessions Judges, Frederick Hackenburg, Henry Curran and George DeLuca. The first two defendants were given six months each, while Maertz drew one year in the city work house.

Curran was described last fall as a "renegade Irishman" in connection with the biased remarks which he made at the time of defendants' arraignment.

Lawyer Klein asked the judges to disqualify themselves and he moved that the verdict be set aside and sentence to be postponed. He argued that the Queens "Christian Front" meeting was in the promotion of a new "Nationalist" party.

He charged that the sitting judges had made prejudicial statements; and he wanted time in which to present a petition for the removal of Magistrate D'Andrea, who last October held the three Christians for trial in Special Sessions court.

Judge DeLuca then announced the bench would refuse to hear Klein's reasons for wanting sentence delayed. "It is not germaine to the issue," DeLuca said.

Klein retorted, "They were framed in D'Andreas' court at the time of their arraignment."

Assistant District Attorney Jacob Irwin Shapiro of Rockaway Beach demanded the maximum sentence of three years in prison and/or $500 fine. He referred to the defendants' "Anti-Semitism" as "venomous poison."

When DeLuca pronounced the sentences, the court room, crowded with friends of the Christians, burst into hums of anger and indignation. Whereupon the judges ordered the bailiffs to clear the room.

Women shouted at Isadore Ginsberg, the tubby Jew who instigated the persecution. The crowd was in an ugly mood. "Dirty kikes! Jew bastards! They will be wiped out!"

In the meantime, the three Christians, whose only offense was speaking at the political meeting, must remain in jail for a few days, before the certificate of appeal is filed.

"PM" revealed the real nature of the "offence" in its headline, "Christian Fronters Jailed for Anti-Semitic Speeches."

The strike epidemic is considered by shrewd observers as the Communist-inspired dress rehearsal for a general strike and revolution. Wise observers do not believe by any means that all strike leaders are Communists, but the wise boys who are engineering the chaos know exactly what they are doing. If they can demonstrate ability to paralyze transportation (railroads and buses), communications (telegraph, telephone and radio), and food (meat), they can so tie the nation up that law enforcement authorities will even be unable to contact police, militias, etc.
